

Prince Andrew opens door to the future at York Minster

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS, Prince Andrew The Duke Of York, paid a visit to the town of his Dukedom last week, to mark the restoration of the Great West Door of the Minster and its surrounds. As well as talking to the craftsmen responsible for the restoration, and unveiling a plaque commemorating the work, the Prince also found time to chat with well wishers and tourists.